Excerpts from Business Daily Article:

"A consultancy firm [B&M] focusing on analyzing the risk of doing business in individual African countries has been launched, adding onto the information resource pool international investors need to make decisions on which part of the continent to invest in."

"The launch comes at a time when Kenya's risk profile is rising, following revelations that rival ethnic groups are rearming themselves in anticipation of a fresh outbreak of violence in the up-coming 2012 general elections."

Egypt/North Africa

From October 6-11, 2009, B&M Consulting received extensive coverage in the Egyptian press in regards to B&M's inclusion of Gamal Mubarak in our "Top Ten African Leaders to Watch in 2010."
