

Bello & Manchau, Inc. Announces Name Change and Staff Changes

Austin, TX, Monday, November 30, 2009:

Bello & Manchau, Inc., the first political risk consultancy focused exclusively on Africa, announced today a name change effective Tuesday, December 1, 2009. Henceforth, the new company name is simply B&M Consulting, Inc. (“B&M” no longer stands for “Bello & Manchau”) to reflect the departure of Mr. Melvin Manchau and the addition of new partners.

As a continuation of its will to pursue other opportunities in different strategic segments, Bello & Manchau reached a preliminary agreement with Mr. Manchau to spin off an independent consulting firm Frontier Markets Capital under the supervision of Mr. Manchau. Frontier Markets Capital will help investors looking for investment opportunities in developing countries to broaden their portfolio in these difficult but rewarding environments.

About B&M Consulting, Inc.

B&M Consulting is the first political risk consultancy focusing exclusively on Africa. B&M Consulting helps its clients navigate and manage the risks of doing business in Africa by closely monitoring and analyzing political, economic, security and social developments across the continent and forecasting the impact of these developments on a client’s bottom-line. B&M Consulting advises corporations (i.e. institutional investors), non-profits, multilateral organizations and governments.
